The author exposes the Vatican's involvement in world politics, intrigues, and the fomenting of wars throughout history. It appears, beyond any doubt, that the Roman Catholic institution is not a Christian church and never was. The poor Roman Catholic people have been betrayed by her and are facing spiritual disaster. Paris shows that Rome is responsible for the two great world wars.

This gentle book uses a Catholic Bible to answer common questions Catholics have for Protestants. It covers topics like venerating images, purgatory, etc. It also includes a salvation message. Great for Catholics!

JESUITS

Change is in the wind, Sam. You must be careful what you say, who you meet with, and what you write! You're being watched! But let me be clear — I'm here for you! Whatever you need... if anyone verbally attacks you, just ask for me by name.

I'll talk to the guards —
They'll look out for you!

I really appreciate that, sir!

Please, call me Henry!

Thank you, Henry.

I need you to realize, Sam, this situation is temporary. Soon you'll be resettled in a nicer neighborhood!

I'm so glad we could straighten this out, Sam.

Are preparations ready?

You're all set in Beech Grove. Helicopter's waiting.

I love Indiana this time of year.

What shall we do with Sam Armstrong?

What do I care? He's your responsibility now.

In protest of Tetzel's actions, Martin Luther nailed a powerful protest statement to the Wittenberg Church door.* It caused a fire storm.

October 31, 1517

Luther had no idea what he had started.

*Known as "The 95 Theses."

Pope Leo X brought charges against Luther's writings and a trial was held, known as "the Diet of Worms"* in 1521.

Luther was commanded either to recant or reaffirm his beliefs.

*Imperial assembly at the city of Worms in what is now Germany.

Retract (take back) his statements.

On April 18, 1521, Luther took his stand for the word of God.

"Unless I am convinced by the testimonies of the Holy Scriptures or evident reason...

I am neither able nor willing to recant...

God help me. Amen."

He expected to be burnt at the stake.

But before the verdict could be read (calling for his punishment as a heretic),*

...his friend, Frederick of Saxony, pulled off a phony kidnapping... and rushed him to his castle for protection.

This gave Luther time to translate God's preserved words into German. He completed the New Testament in only 11 weeks!

September 1521

It's finished!

What started as a scholarly debate sent shockwaves into the Catholic world, because one man had the guts to face this monster.

The Reformation had begun.

*The verdict was read on May 25, 1521.

Roman Catholics who read Luther's German Bible were shocked to find Rome's traditions were not in the Holy Scriptures. This echoed all the way to Rome.

WHAT?! This says men must "repent," not "do penance"!

Unbelievable, Holy Father!

Oh my!

Satan could see the writing on the wall.

The Devil knew his beloved Roman Catholic institution would be destroyed if Catholics trusted the scriptures instead of Mary, traditions and popes.

Satan needed to raise up his own champion—an evil genius to control people's minds, and turn them away from the words of God.

The Devil set his sights on the one man who he thought could wipe out the Reformation. One fateful day during the French siege of the Citadel of Pamplona:

May 20, 1521

Perfect! Fire!

BOOM!

Who was he aiming at?

Captain Ignatius of Loyola was hit with a one-in-a-million shot.

This brave soldier had lived a charmed life. Never before had he been wounded in battle. But the Devil had big plans for him.

This tragedy ended his military career.

His enemies admired his courage so much that they treated his wounds, then sent him home to Loyola castle.

See Ignatius of Loyola and the Early Jesuits, by Stewart Rose (1871), pp. 15-16.

He underwent several painful operations which he bore with quiet dignity.

Then he was left to rest and recover.

Ignatius loved romance novels, but the only books available to him were legends of the Catholic saints and the life of Christ.

Ignatius longed to do great deeds, like the stories of these Catholic saints.

It was the end of one career and the beginning of another.

See Life of St. Ignatius of Loyola, by F. A. Forbes (1919), pp. 14-18.

See Autobiography (1900), p. 37.

See Autobiography, pp. 35-36, 38.

Ignatius had incredible will power... He would spend a day on his knees in prayer to the "Blessed Virgin."

And he still whipped himself three times a day.

See Autobiography, p. 47

These visions gave Ignatius ideas for a kind of brainwashing that he soon called "The Spiritual Exercises."

Satan directed him on how to control the minds of his future Jesuit disciples.

See Autobiography, pp. 53-57.

When he began to receive symbolic visions that he claimed were of Mary and Jesus, he stopped this pattern of self-abuse.

He even saw visions of Jesus in the Eucharist.*

*The wafer that a priest claims becomes Jesus.

Satan illuminated his mind and he drew followers to himself like moths to a flame.

The number of disciples kept increasing. This made the secret police of the Catholic Inquisition very suspicious of this new religious movement.

See Ignatius of Loyola and the Early Jesuits, 16 by Stewart Rose (1871), pp. 86-88.

In his schooling at Alcala, Spain, his reputation preceded him. Ignatius was a war hero, and some claimed he was a Don Juan (a ladies' man), when he drew groups of religious women to receive spiritual guidance.

1526-27

His ability to control minds was light years ahead of his time. Women would have visions, swoon and faint. Men admired him and would follow him to the death. These were known as "Enlightened Ones" —Illuminati.

This was too much for the local priests.

He's an Alumbrado.*

*Spanish for "Enlightened one" —member of the Illuminati.

An unseen hand protected him. He was never tortured, but placed in a cell and allowed visitors.

Within a few years' time Ignatius faced four Inquisitions (trials). Each time he was found innocent and honored as a holy man.

For instance, see Autobiography, pp. 90-108, 120-21, & 127-28.

It was soon followed by another vision. Despite these ordeals, Ignatius and his friends completed their education and were ordained to the priesthood in 1537. After this came the most momentous vision of his life.

Ignatius called his group "The Company of Jesus." Now they are known as "The Jesuit Order."

See Ignatius Loyola and the Early Jesuits, pp. 190-192.

But it was up to Pope Paul III to decide if this little group would be allowed to exist.*

On September 17, 1540 the Jesuits became the official arm of Rome to destroy the hated Protestants and Baptists. And on April 19, 1541 Ignatius was unanimously elected Jesuit General for life.

*See Constitutiones Societatis Jesu, anno 1558 (London, 1838), pp. 101-106.

Their schools provide a teacher (or mentor) that manipulates the student's thinking in such a way that God disappears and is replaced by his "godly" priest...

It's diabolical.

The result—a submissive, brain-washed robot that has willingly offered his mind, body, and soul into the hands of...

the only person he thinks he can trust: his mentor (Big Brother).

But things are not as they seem!

In reality, every student is closely watched to see if he is a potential Jesuit. The rest they will turn into Jesuit assets.*

*Assets: People who can be used to further Jesuit goals, whether they realize it or not.

Each Jesuit reports to his superiors and obeys them without question.* The head of the college is a "Rector"...

who reports to a "Provincial" (the Jesuit over a region), who reports regularly to the "Jesuit General" (head of the order).

All of this is done with military precision.

*See The Constitutiones Societatis Jesu, (1558), Part 2, Ch. 1, Para. 2; Part 3, Ch. 1., Para. 23-24.

The Jesuit Order is a highly disciplined army. The key to their discipline: absolute obedience.

Each Jesuit is as a "corpse" in the hands of the General. The General is respected and feared by every Jesuit as God Himself.*

This is the current Jesuit General.
His name is Adolfo Nicolás.
He is the 34th General* since Ignatius of Loyola.

*See Rulers of Evil by F. Tupper Saussy, (NY: Harper Collins, 1999), pp. 296-297.

He's the most powerful and dangerous man on the face of the earth.

*All Jesuits in their vows speak of the General as "holding the place of God." See The Constitutiones Societatis Jesu (1558), Part 5, Ch. 3, Para. 3 & 6; Ch. 4, Para. 2.

Back in 1545 Ignatius (the first Jesuit General) began to write guidelines for accepting candidates who wished to join the Jesuit Order.

When finished, these guidelines (the Ratio Studiorum and the Constitutiones, Part IV) covered every aspect of the candidate's life—emotional, intellectual, physical, and spiritual.

The candidate is warned in advance of the terrible price of being a Jesuit.

To be a Jesuit, you must trust the Order to place you wherever God directs us—whether as an honored priest or the lowest of servants.

Do you really want to be part of this?

Well...?

If Steve says yes... he may become a member of the most dangerous, undercover army on earth.

But from this point on, his entire life will be in the hands of his superiors—and the Jesuit General.

This one shows promise.

My superiors agree. We'll give him our pitch.

Any student who attends a Jesuit college, such as Boston, Georgetown, Loyola or Fordham, is very closely watched, to see if his thinking is similar to the Jesuits'.

They are looking for a genius —whether Roman Catholic or not— the cream of the crop, and approach him about becoming a candidate. If he accepts their proposal to become a Jesuit, he is brought into the "House of First Probation."*

When the student enters this "house" he is separated from other candidates, but he is surrounded by well-trained graduates, working as cooks, gardeners or doormen...

...who secretly watch his every move, trying to discover any weaknesses.

*See the Constitutiones Societatis Jesu (1558), Part 1, Ch. 4.

These are known as "temporal coadjutors," The Constitutions of the Society of Jesus, (1970) Part 1, Para. 149a

To enter the "house" you must have these qualifications:

Good looking, healthy, good memory, love the Jesuit institution, discreet, virtuous, desiring spiritual perfection, zealous for souls (to become Roman Catholic).

They must be at least 14 to enter and 25 to become a priest.

This marks the end of their innocence.

Over the next 10-14 years, an intensive weeding-out process takes place. Candidates are regularly tested and placed in different groups and levels.

1st Class The "Professed"

These are priests with "S.J." after their names (if they want to be known).

Only a few of the Jesuits make it to this class. This means that the vast majority of Jesuits are not priests!

They take 4 vows: obedience, poverty, chastity, and "special obedience to the Pope."*

2nd Class The "Formed Coadjutors"

There are 2 kinds:

A) Spiritual Coadjutors
These are lesser priests, who can only hear confessions, preach and teach.

B) Temporal Coadjutors

These are at the bottom of the barrel, with no spiritual authority whatsoever. They work as cooks, guardians etc., as long as they live... "for the greater glory of God."

3rd Class "Approved Scholastics"

This is a student who promises to lay his future in the hands of his superior...

Hmmm.

...who will decide after his 10-14 years of study where he will end up in the system. Whether he becomes a Jesuit priest or a janitor, he trusts that his superior speaks for God.

4th Class "Still Indifferent"

It has not been decided where these people belong. They, too, must trust their superior as God...

...and wait up to 14 years for his decision.

Their goal is an elite team of the most dedicated men in the world, who will do anything for their Jesuit General without thought or hesitation.

The Jesuit goal is to make the world serve the Pope, by hook or by crook!

*Constitutions (1970), p. 81, "The General Examen," Ch. 1, Footnote 20.

*See The Vatican Billions, by Avro Manhattan

As you know, the true gospel is very simple.

Jesus left heaven to shed His precious blood to wash away our sins on the cross.

Gospel

This is how people get saved:

On the 3rd day
He rose from the dead.

He is in heaven and will soon return to rule the world.

"...Believe
on the Lord
Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..."
(Acts 16:31)

Look how simple this is!

But three centuries later the Roman Catholic system started piling things onto the gospel... like:

Catholic Additions

Prayers to saints, angels and the goddess they claim to be Mary.

Eating Jesus in the form of a wafer
(called "the mass").

Going to confession and keeping the sacraments (Catholics have seven).

"Extra ecclesiam nulla salus"
(There is no salvation outside of the Roman Catholic Church.)

All for the reward of "Purgatory" (an imaginary place where they must suffer to burn off their sins).

Not one of these Catholic additions is in scripture!

Roman Catholicism is not true Christianity. It's a counterfeit religious machine with incredible power. Its members are unknowingly held captive to the ruler of darkness. Love and devotion are completely overshadowed by fear, lies, and cruel, despotic power.

Every Jesuit is also in its power. He is taught to say, "for the greater glory of God," which is used to justify any atrocity he might be ordered to carry out. He is a soldier, always on standby, never allowed a thought of his own.

To the greater glory of God!

This is why Jesus hates the Vatican and warns the precious Roman Catholics of her coming doom in Revelation 17-18.

Jesus said:

"...Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues."*

*Rev. 18:4

The Vatican is on God's hit list.

And look who runs the show!

The Jesuit General

"...from this room I govern not only Paris, but China; not only China, but the world, without anyone knowing how it is managed."*

"The members of the society are dispersed in every corner of the world... the same aim, same conduct, same vow... has tied them together. At the least sign, one man, the General, turns and returns the entire Society and shapes the revolution of so large a body"*

As Jesuits you will make the world submit to the Pope!

The total power and support of Mother Church are at your disposal... as long as you carry out this assignment.

Become the counsellors and confessors of the powerful, and the educators of their children,

...as our first General, Father Ignatius, commanded us...

*Superior General Michelangelo Tamburini, see History of the Jesuits, by Andrew Steinmetz, Vol. 1 (1848) pp. 107, 168-69.

Statement authorized by Superior General Mutius Vitelleschi in Imago Primi Saeculi Societas Jesu (1640). See The Suppressed Truth About the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln (1924). pp 14-15.

Ignatius showed how to get leaders under Jesuit control.

"You must not begin by talking about spiritual things to people immersed in worldly interests... you must insinuate yourself into their confidence by studying their habits, and spying out their propensities... show yourself a good companion.

When you become acquainted with the bosom sins and pleasant vices of folk in high position, you can lead them on the path of virtue at your pleasure... Make no show of compromise with evil... but refine away the evil by distinctions, reservations, hypothetical conditions, until it disappears... Do not leave folk to their own blunt sense of right and wrong, but let them admire the finer edge of your scalpel, while you shred up evil into morsels they can hardly see...

You will be able to absolve with a clear conscience. Your penitent* will abound in gratitude and open out his heart to you. You will fulfil your function as confessor and counsellor.

He will be secured for the sacred ends of our Society, and will contribute to the greater glory of God."

*A person who confesses sins to a priest.

Renaissance in Italy: the Catholic Reaction, Part 1, by John Addington Symonds (1904), pp. 223-224.

The General's greatest source of intelligence worldwide is from the confessional.

Hints of a revolution, secret government projects, scandals in high places...

...every important piece of information that can be gleaned from the confessional goes directly into a report. And these reports are sent to the Jesuit General.

Gasp!

Another thing Father... not important, it's just that I got mad at my stupid brother who's starting that revolution thing...

I yelled at him to shut up at dinner time and it upset Mama... is that a sin?

Revolution? His superiors will know of it within the hour.

See the Constitutiones (1838), Part 4, Chap. 10 Paras. 5 & 7; Part 8, Chap. 1, Para. 4, and especially paragraph 9. See also the Constitutions (1970), Part 8, Chap. 1, Paras. 673-676.

The White Pope

Before the world he appears to run the Roman Catholic system. All attention is focused on him. All world leaders come to kiss his ring to pledge allegiance to him... but he's not the one who runs the show.

The Black Pope

The Black Pope, the supreme General of the Jesuits, controls the entire church system, including so-called "Non-Catholic" secret societies and world politics, and will oversee the coming inquisition for his master, the Prince of Darkness.

Alberto Rivera

Former Jesuit Priest, Alberto Rivera as well as P.D. Stuart's Codeword Barbelon (2006), led us to books full of this information. Alberto also told us that no assassination takes place without the full knowledge and approval of the Jesuit General.

See the Alberto comic series, available from Chick Publications.
Alberto went to be with the Lord on June 20, 1997.

Here is just a glimpse of the havoc these guys have caused:

- Starting civil wars.
- Assassinating presidents and dictators.
- WWI and WWII.
- Jesuit Father Staempfle helped Hitler write Mein Kampf ---which is still a best seller in the Muslim community.
- Modern Communism.
- Tried to stop Israel from becoming a nation.
- The Jesuits despise Israel and want Jerusalem for the White Pope.

Helen — Sam! You're home!

We're back, Pastor! It was all a big mistake. Something to do with hate laws...

Jesuits?

Strange... Henry wasn't there to see us off. I wonder what happened to him?

For the greater glory of God.

Amen.

BLAM!!

Tim, Jim, how do we stop these Jesuits?

Only God can, Pastor. And He told us in the Bible they will ultimately succeed.

They started with suppressing our freedom of speech. Soon freedom of the press will go, and then our right to peaceably assemble. It's already underway.

It'll open the door for the Antichrist who will rule the world from the Vatican! But the Beast and his Jesuit Inquisition are fighting against Almighty God. They will be smashed when the Lord Jesus Christ returns.

Then the Lord Jesus will destroy him and his army and rule the world Himself, bringing the only true peace the world will ever know.

Jesus will judge the billions of lost souls who died in their sins. They will face Jesus and have their lives reviewed at the Great White Throne Judgment.

Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels.*

All of the lost will be cast into the lake of fire for all eternity.

But all who are born again by faith in Jesus are saved. And you will reign with Him, judge angels and live in mansions,† if you receive the Lord Jesus as your Saviour.‡ (See page 26)

Revelation 3:21

WHAT TO PRAY

Dear God, thank you for showing me what You think about Catholicism. I also reject it! I accept Christ's sacrifice as perfect and complete. Please forgive me in Jesus' name. I invite Jesus Christ to come into my life and I place my trust in Him alone for my salvation. Thank you for giving me eternal life right now.

Did you accept Jesus Christ as your own personal Saviour? Yes ☐ No ☐
